Bygone Collection

The very best sash windows

The Bygone Collection is not only designed to satisfy the requirements of modern consumers and comply with current building regulations. Bygone's key aim is to complement, and blend seamlessly; retaining the character, charm, and period quality of your home.

The Bygone Collection is a premium range of Sash Windows, built to the most exacting specification, using patented technology and innovative design. The quality of finishing on the Bygone Collection can provide the perfect addition to your home.

Combining attention to detail and exceptional build quality, with an unprecedented 12 year guarantee. Exclusively available from sash window specialists, Masterframe, this quintessential sash window is as perfect for authentic period conservation and restoration, as it is for thermally efficient new build period reproductions.

And now for a limited time only, you too can transform your home with 10% off all orders for Bygone Collection Sash Windows placed between 16th November and 31st December 2026 exclusively available from your local Master Installer.
